HAPPY BIRTHDAY LIBRA

23 September – 22 October

This is an excellent time to work on financial planning and strategy. Your ability to understand and accept anything that is deep in meaning or significant is enhanced now, and you instinctively realize that the path to healing is to face your fears. Improving your skill set may be necessary for your work, and even if it isn't required of you, you should probably look into getting formal or even informal training. You tend to have less time for acquaintances and perhaps even for family at times. Freedom of personal expression is immensely important to you now.
